

Her Health Restored ALGER REMINISCENT

Talks on the Successful Handling of Spanish Prisoners of War.

RETURNING THEM TO SPAIN

The Idea Originated With the Secretary, Who Presented It to the President and Received His Approval. Suggestion Was Unprecedented, but Saved Our Country Much Money.

THE misery of sleeplessness can only be realized by those who have experienced it. Nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, neuralgia and that miserable feeling of unrest, can surely be cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. So certain is Dr. Miles of this fact that all druggists are authorized to refund price paid for the first bottle tried, providing it does not benefit. Mrs. Henry Bruns, wife of the well known blacksmith at Grand Junction, Iowa, says: "I was troubled with sleeplessness, nervousness, headache and irregular menstruation; suffering untold misery for years. I used various advertised remedies for female complaints besides being under the care of local physicians, without help. I noticed in Dr. Miles' advertisement the testimonial of a lady cured of ailments similar to mine, and I shall never cease to thank that lady. Her testimonial induced me to use Dr. Miles' Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills, which restored me to health. I cannot say enough for Dr. Miles' Remedies."

of Negroes. It shows that the victory of the soldiers was greater than that reported in General Otis' dispatch of July 21, and that the loss suffered by the robbers was considerably larger than before stated. Much satisfaction is felt by General Otis over the results of this preliminary effort in dealing with this disturbing element in the island and he reports it already as having a salutary effect on other bands infesting the locality.

BUYING HORSES

For the War Department, to Be Sent to the Philippines.

Chicago, July 24.—War department orders were received at Fort Sheridan yesterday to place a troop, Third cavalry, in immediate readiness for active service in the Philippines. The same dispatch announces the administration's purpose to use cavalry more freely in the fall campaign. Major James B. Ayres, who purchased the government's cavalry horses for the Spanish-American war, has instructions to buy 3,000 animals.

Cruiser Olympia.

Trieste, July 24.—It has been decided that the United States cruiser Olympia shall remain here 10 days longer. Crowds visited the cruiser yesterday and were shown over her by the sailors, who explained everything about her to the visitors. Admiral Dewey, accompanied by the American consul, made an excursion during the afternoon in a carriage to Opina mountain.

Mascagni's Dewey Hymn.

Rome, July 24.—Mascagni's hymn in honor of Admiral Dewey was performed at Pesaro yesterday for the first time before an audience of 2,000 persons. It was greatly appreciated and is considered one of the finest hymns Mascagni has written.

Governor Tanner Wanted in Colorado—May Be Jailed or Fined.

Debeque, Colo., July 24.—Governor Tanner of Illinois is safely out of the state, despite efforts on the part of game wardens to detain him for violation of the game law in killing out of season one four-pronged buck. Not satisfied with the pelt of a mountain lion for his parlor, the executive of Illinois slow a young deer, and the incident promises to make trouble between Colorado and Illinois.

The open season begins Aug. 15, and one caught with deer in his possession before that time may be committed to jail for a period of from 10 days to six months, or be made to pay a fine of from $10 to $500, or both.

There was no concealment in Governor Tanner's offense, and the news was promptly wired to the chief game warden at Denver with a request for instructions. The local wardens did not care to arrest a visiting governor and, therefore, took no action on the premises.

It is said that Governor Tanner will return this way from California, for which state he last night boarded a train at Glenwood Springs and that on crossing the Utah line, coming east, he will be served with summons to appear before Justice Heiden at Glenwood Springs.

GAMBLING AT HAVANA

General Ludlow Desires to Suppress It—Old Spanish Law.

Havana, July 24.—The commission of prominent Cuban lawyers appointed by General Ludlow to decide upon the report as to the best methods to be adopted for checking public gambling, recently made a complete report, which was referred to Mayor Lacoste. It seems that the old Spanish law was perfectly able to cope with the entire matter, but that it was rarely enforced, owing to the large revenue received by the government for hospitals and other charitable institutions from the proprietors of gambling establishments.

Occasionally the governors would enforce the law and all gambling would stop for a few months, only to break out again and be carried on with more freedom than before. The committee recognizes the fact that gambling has now assumed proportions which it is desirable to check and sets forth in its report that the Spanish law only requires the co-operation of the police to bring about the desired reform.

Found Dead in Bed.

Chicago, July 24.—Dr. A. Alford, formerly of Prescott, Ariz., was found dead in bed at his room in the home of Charles Barton last night. In the room were found a bottle of morphine and a hypodermic syringe, while on the dead man's arms were found numerous syringe abrasions. It is not known whether the doctor committed suicide or took an accidental overdose of the drug. Dr. Alford arrived in Chicago six days ago.

A FILIPINO PRIEST

Has Started a Revolt From the Spanish Priesthood In the Island of Luzon.

ISSUED A PROCLAMATION

Declaring Himself Vicar General of All the Filipino Priests in Districts Outside of American Control—Archbishop Excommunicates Him—Arrival of U. S. Cruiser Zealandia.

Manila, July 24.—A Filipino priest named Gregorio Agripay, with the insurgents, is trying to lead a movement for the independence of the church in the Philippines from the Spanish priesthood. He has issued a proclamation declaring himself the vicar general of all the Filipino priests in the districts outside of American control on the Island of Luzon, and is inciting the priests to disobey the regulations of the church and brotherhoods. The archbishop of the district has issued a bull excommunicating Agripay, and this action has increased the feeling between the Filipinos and the church.

The archbishop threatened to excommunicate the owners of Spanish papers publishing announcements of Protestant and Masonic meetings, whereon an American paper warned him that he might be banded out of the island like any disturber of the peace if he should incite religious animosities. The Dominican friars have begun the publication of a newspaper under the title of The Libertas, for the purpose of defending the brotherhood.

The United States transport Zealandia, which sailed from San Francisco, June 24, with four companies of the Twenty-fourth United States Infantry, 150 recruits and a large amount of provisions and supplies for the army on board, has arrived here.

$30 MEXICAN

Alleged the Government Is Trying to Buy Filipinos to Surrender.

Independence, Kan., July 24.—Under date May 31, Emil G. Etzold, Company G, Twentieth Kansas, writes from Manila to his sister in this city. Among other statements he says: "They say that our regiment will be relieved in a short time, but I think we are in for it until its finished. I think it will not be long now until this war is over and that the volunteers will go home. There were two of Aguinaldo's officers here yesterday to negotiate on peace terms, and nobody knows yet what they did about it. They are pretty anxious to have the war stop, and our government has offered $30 Mexican money for every man who will come in and give up his gun."

PLATTSBURG

Preparations Being Made For the Reception of the President and Wife.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 24.—Preparations are being made at Hotel Champlain in anticipation of the arrival of President and Mrs. McKinley, who are expected on Wednesday or Thursday of this week. In view of Mrs. McKinley's ill health, the president hopes to be able to spend his time while here in absolute rest and quiet. He has asked that no newspaper correspondents be allowed on the special train which will convey himself and party to the shores of Lake Champlain.

Many prominent people are expected at the hotel during the president's visit, among them being Secretary of the Treasury, Attorney General Griggs, vice President Hobart and family and Elhu Root, recently appointed secretary of war.

$1,000,000 IN GOLD

Has Been Collected From Miners In Royalties In the Klondike.

Vancouver, B. C., July 24.—The steamer Rosalia has arrived from Skagway with 200 passengers and $110,000 in gold dust aboard. William Braid, a local merchant, brought $50,000, and Seattle men owned the remainder of the gold.

Braid, who is conversant with government affairs, said that nearly $1,000,000 had been collected in royalties, and he placed the total output of the country at $20,000,000. Eldorado, Dominion and Bonanza creeks were supplying nearly all of the gold.

MAILBOX ROBBER

Timothy Hogan Returned to the Columbus (O.) Penitentiary.

Columbus, O., July 24.—Timothy Hogan, the noted mailbox robber, who escaped from the penitentiary May 8 last, was returned to the prison Saturday. He stated that inside of 24 hours from the time of his capture he would have been enlisted in the regular army. He was returned dressed in the uniform of a soldier and a light hat. He undoubtedly intended to leave for one of the newly acquired islands and there remain as a soldier.

Striking Coal Diggers Return to Work Weir City, Kan., July 24.—The 400 coal miners working for the J. H. CUT TO PIECES

John Martin Falls Under the Cars. Remains Gathered in a Box.

Bedford, Ind., July 24.—John Martin was killed late Saturday at the Perry, Matthews & Buskirk quarries, where he was employed. He jumped from some cars on which he was at work, lighting on a pile of stone and falling back on the track, the engine and several cars cut him to pieces. Part of his remains were gathered in a box and brought to town. He leaves a wife and two children.

Mother's Mistake.

Pendleton, Ind., July 24.—Mistaking a bottle of carbolic acid for castoria, Mrs. Banks of this city gave a baby a spoonful of the poison Saturday. The child is only a few weeks old, and the physicians, while hopeful of recovery, are not sanguine. They say the child could not have swallowed any of the acid or it would have died. The inside of the baby's mouth is all burned as a result of the mistake.

Murdere Wants a Pardon.

Sullivan, Ind., July 24.—Efforts to secure a pardon for John Ezra are being made. He was sentenced from this county in 1895 to life imprisonment for the murder of Solomon Finkelshtein, a Jewish peddler of Terre Haute. Ezra crushed Finkelshtein's skull with an iron poker. He is suffering with consumption, which developed since his imprisonment.

Life Sentence.

Mitchell, Ind., July 24.—John Flora of this place received a life sentence in the Michigan City prison Saturday for killing Jesse Burton here last March. It was a case of mistaken identity. Flora was lying in wait with a shotgun for A. B. Jones, and in his excitement mistook young Burton for Jones. He emptied the contents of his shotgun into Burton, killing him instantly.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

In Honor of the Late Robert G. Ingersoll.

Peoria, Ill., July 24.—Memorial services to the memory of the late Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, who was for many years a prominent resident of Peoria, were held in the Tabernacle here yesterday afternoon. Over 500 of the dead orators old time friends were in attendance. Addresses were delivered by about 20 of his old associates, neighbors, comrades and friends, and lengthy resolutions, lauding his works of charity and his courage in upholding his belief concerning freedom of thought and speech on all questions, and extending sympathy to his bereaved family, were adopted by a rising vote. A movement toward the erection of a monument to his memory in Glen Oak park was also begun.

Acquitted the Second Time.

New York, July 24.—A dispatch to The Herald from Monte Video says: A jury has for the second time acquitted Avolino Areduondo, the murderer of President Bordeia. Among the arguments brought forward in the prisoner's behalf was one that it was not proved that the president's death was caused directly by the shot as no autopsy had been held on the body.

$1,000,000 Fire at Toledo. Toledo, O., July 24.—The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton elevator was totally destroyed by fire last night which seemingly was started from an internal explosion. The entire building and contents are valued at $1,000,000. As far as can be learned no lives have been lost although the watchman is reported as seriously injured.

RIOTING CONTINUES

Cleveland Streetcar Strikers Stone Officers and Cars.

Cleveland, July 24.—Rioting, which continued throughout Saturday night, was renewed yesterday, and there were several serious outbreaks of violence, but no clashes between the mobs and the troops.

Cars were started running as usual yesterday on all but one or two lines. The mobs were astir early. More than 1,000 persons gathered on Burton street and proceeded to obstruct the track. When a car came along with two policemen on board it was attacked with a shower of stones. In spite of the policemen the nonunion motorman and conductor were roughly handled. One of them, named McDermott, had two ribs broken and the other was badly bruised. One of the policemen fired at the mob, the bullet striking a man named Wennick. The mob assaulted the officers, both of whom were struck repeatedly with stones, and but for the intervention of a priest of the Catholic church near at hand, the officers might have been lynched. A patrol wagon of police arrived, dispersed the rioters and the cars were taken back to the barns.

There was a serious disturbance on the Broadway line at the corner of Petrie street, where a mob of 3,000 assembled and obstructed the track. Finally a car came along from the Wilson avenue barns, having on board Sergeant Burrows and a private of militia and Detective Kelson. The officer ordered the mob to disperse when the motorman attempted to remove the obstruction from the track, but the rioters showed fight. Then Sergeant Burrows and the one soldier, with fixed bayonets, faced the mob and attempted to clear the way. There was a sharp fight for a few minutes, during which a perfect shower of stones fell about the detective and the soldiers, smashing the car windows. No one was seriously hurt, and after arresting two of the rioters and placing them on the car, it was returned to the barns and the mob dispersed.

A Euclid avenue car, loaded with passengers, was wrecked by an explosion of nitroglycerine or gun cotton last night. Four persons were badly hurt, the names of the injured being: Albert E. Fassett, F. A. Smith, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. E. C. Martin.

The explosion tore out the front end of the car, smashed all the windows and destroyed the brake. After considerable difficulty the car was stopped and calls for ambulances sent out. The motorman, William Draggors, who came from Cincinnati, was dazed by the shock, but the conductor, Frank Schroeder of St. Louis, escaped injury. In the vicinity of the Holmden avenue barns last night there was continuous rioting for three or four hours. Every car that passed was attacked with stones, and several pistol shots were fired at them. There was a lively fusillade at one time, the nonunion crews returning the fire. The only person hurt was a woman, who was shot in the finger as she stood in her doorway. The police made 25 arrests in that neighborhood.

Erroneous Principles Regarding the End of Man—Pope's Jubilee.

Trenton, N. J., July 24.—Bishop McFaul discussed the evils of our day in a pastoral letter read in all the churches of the diocese yesterday and fixed July 28, 29 and 30 as days for special devotions to the sacred heart as a preliminary to the pope's jubilee, which begins on Christmas of this year and extends to Christmas of next year.

In his letter the bishop said that erroneous principles regarding the end of man have rendered society unfruitful of the cultivation, not only of supernatural virtue, but of those natural virtues which great men, even among the pagans, endeavor to propagate.

"Who is it," he said, "who is at all acquainted with the condition of society in our own beloved country that will be disposed to deny the widespread depravity of morals which confront us?" The bishop then quoted a writer who said that vast combinations depress the price of labor and increase the cost of the necessities of existence and that the rich as a rule despise the poor, and the poor as a rule are coming to hate the rich, and both sides are arrayed in hostile camps. The bishop said that this picture might be overdrawn, but it was necessary to recall men to the necessities of their state and their own salvation.

Not a Penny For Strikers.

New York, July 24.—At the Cooper union meeting of federated trade there was further talk on the strike, and one of the delegates denounced the board of aldermen, saying: "They had $150,000 to give to entertain Admiral Dewey, but not a penny for the poor strikers. For them there were policemen's night sticks and prison cells."

Negroes Lynched.

Batubridge, Ga., July 24.—A negro captured near Iron City Saturday night was brought to Saffold and identified as one of the assassins of Mrs. J. E. Oglesby last Thursday night. He was lynched at daylight yesterday morning. Two other dead negroes were found alongside the railroad track two miles west of here yesterday.

Reunion of Former German Soldiers.

Chicago, July 24.—The 14th national convention of former soldiers of the German army now living in the United States will be held from Aug. 18 to 15 inclusive. More than 5,000 ex-soldiers will come to Chicago from all parts of the country.

ELIHU ROOT

President Selects Him as Secretary of the Philippine Commission.

Washington, July 24.—The president has filled the vacancy caused by the resignation of Secretary Alger. It was a record breaker as to time in filling a cabinet position. The new secretary of war is Elihu Root of New York. Alger's resignation came on Wednesday, it was accepted on Thursday and Mr. Root was appointed Saturday. He is visiting the president today to discuss the duties of his office. Mr. Root stands at the head of the New York bar, and will have more particular charge of the legal sphere of the office, which has become quite formidable since the acquisition of Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. General Corbin will retain his present position and have, it is said, direct charge of the war.

New York Strike.

New York, July 24.—The fact that cars were run on all Brooklyn lines under headway yesterday shows that the strike is practically dead. To the sea side resorts traffic was more general than it was last Sunday, but the public did not take advantage of improving service, probably owing to the fear of possible disturbances which have so far marked the aftermath of the strike.

Hunters in Ceylon.

A more disagreeable object than a scorpion of Ceylon it would be difficult to imagine. Although, as a rule, it does not measure more than seven inches in length, there is a species found in the woods that are longer than a foot. They crawl out of some dried wood, and taking up their position on a convenient rock or stone, looking, as they hold their great jointed sting curved over their backs and their claws held aloft, the very picture of aggressive warfare. Here they stretch themselves in the broiling sun and await their prey. These

Hon. Elihu Root the new secretary of war, is one of the ablest men in New York and will be a very valuable man in the cabinet. But it may be expected that the very men who heaped abuse upon Alger will be no better pleased with the new secretary. They are prone to kick and will never outgrow the habit.

The history of all strikes teaches that it never pays for the strikers to resort to violence or the destruction of property. It means to them a loss of prestige and sympathy and thus a detriment to their cause. This act is evidenced in some of the strikes now on in different parts of the country. Where violence and lawlessness characterize the acts of the strikers they are losing ground. The public does not sympathize with lawlessness and the pity is that men with a just grievance should ever permit themselves to be led to such an extreme.

A firm of long experience has leased quarters in Louisville and will soon begin the manufacture of plug tobacco in opposition to the tobacco trust. This same thing will be done in other lines of business, where the trusts have been organized to raise the price of the articles manufactured. There is too much money seeking investment to make it possible for a consolidation of interests for the sole purpose of destroying competition and then doubling profits to hold the field long. There will be competition where the profits are large in spite of the efforts of the trusts to prevent it. The trusts are wrong in principle and cannot survive.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

Mayor Rader of Jeffersonville, is being talked of as a probable democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

The Republicans of Indianapolis have organized for the approaching city campaign. E. D. Longsdon is the new chairman and John W. Bowler secretary.

Hon. Elihu Root, the noted New York lawyer, has been chosen secretary of the so-called R. A. Alger, resigned. He will accept.

John G. Shucklin has returned from Chicago and says that the next national democratic convention will be held at Kansas City.

Protection.
Nephew (from the city)—Why do you have those lightning rods on your house and barn, Uncle Josh? Don't you know the theory that they afford protection has long since been exploded?
Uncle Josh—Waal, I kin tell you they dew act as perlectors, they're no the'ry.

Nephew—Do you mean to tell me you believe they protect you from lightning?
Uncle Josh—Mebby not, young un, mebby not, but they persect me from them peaky lightning rod peddlers.—Chicago News.

Feeding Hotel Help.
The first work done in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, each day is the preparation of breakfast for 1,200 employees. The last of these meals is served usually before the earliest rising guest sleepily orders his eggs and coffee, thinking himself almost a hero to be breakfasting at such an hour.

Swindled.
Mrs. Smarte says her husband is the worst man that ever was to go shopping. He's almost sure to get swindled every time. "Why," she says, "it was only 't'other day that he bought a flute, and when it came home, if you'll believe it, 'twas full of holes."—Boston Transcript.

Lung Irritation.

SHORT WORDS.

Here Are Some, and They Are Right to the Point.

The following paragraph on "The Use of Short Words" is attributed to Horatio Seymour. It practices what it preached therein, since there is no word in it with more than two syllables, save such as are quoted for purposes of illustration:

"We must not only think in words, but we must also try to use the best words and those which in speech will put what is in our minds into the minds of others. This is the great art which those must gain who wish to teach in the school, the church, at the bar or through the press. To do this in the right way they should use the short words which we learn in early life and which have the same sense to all classes of men. The English of our Bible is good. Now and then some long words are found, and they always hurt the verses in which you find them. Take that which says, 'O ye generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?' There is one long word which ought not to be in it—namely, 'generation.' In the old version the old word 'brood' is used. Read the verse with the term, and you will feel its full force: 'O ye viper's brood, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?' Crime sometimes does not look like crime when it is set before us in the many folds of a long word. When a man steals and we call it a 'defalcation,' we are at a loss to know if it is a plunder or a crime. If he does not tell the truth, and we are told that it is a case of 'prevarication,' it takes us some time to know just what we should think of it. No man will ever cheat himself into wrongdoing, nor will he be at a loss to judge of others if he thinks and speaks of acts in clear, crisp terms. It is a good rule, if one is at a loss to know if an act is right or wrong, to write it down in short, straight English."

A FEAT IN GLASS BLOWING.

The Trick Which a Russian Sprung on the Experts.

Emperor Nicholas wished to illuminate the Alexander column in a grand style. The size of the round lamps to be used for the purpose were indicated and the glasses ordered at the manufactory, where the workmen exerted themselves in vain and almost blew the breath out of their bodies in the endeavor to obtain the desired size.

The commission must be executed, that was self evident, but how?

A great premium was offered to the one who could solve the problem. Again the human bellows toiled and puffed. Their object seemed unattainable, when at last a long bearded Russian stepped forward and declared that he could do it; he had strong lungs; he would only rise his mouth first with a little water to refresh them.

He applied his mouth to the pipe and puffed so much purpose that the vitreous ball swelled and puffed nearly to the required dimensions, up to them, beyond them.

"Hold! Hold!" cried the lookers on. "You are doing too much. And how did you do it all?"

"The matter is simple enough," answered the long beard, "but first, where is my premium?"

And when he clutched the promised bounty he explained.
He had retained some of the water in his mouth, which had passed then into the glowing ball and then, becoming steam, had rendered him this good service.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Sothern and Laura Keane.

While in New York and before he had made any hit, the elder Sothern had a dispute with Laura Keane concerning some trivial affair at a rehearsal, and Miss Keane went into one of her tantrums. After the quarrel on the stage she retired to her dressing room and, still angry, sent for Sothern and began to rate him fiercely.

"Stop, Laura—stop just a minute!" interrupted the comedian and advancing to the light deliberately turned it down.

"What do you mean by that, sir?" she demanded in a rage.

"Oh, nothing," replied Sothern, "but you have always been so lovely to me that I can't bear to look upon your beautiful face when you are in a passion. Now, go on."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Paid 15 Cents to Hug His Wife.

The maddest man in Platte county lives at Humphreys. He attended a social, and during the evening the ladies inaugurated a hugging bee, the proceeds to go to the Sunday school. Prices were graded according to the person hugged. For instance, for hugging a young, inexperienced girl the bidder had to give up ten cents, married women brought 15 cents and widows a quarter. Well the man was blundered and, giving up 15 cents, he said he would take a married woman. After he had hugged 15 cents' worth the bandage was removed from his eyes and, lo and behold, he had been hugging his own wife! Then he kicked and wanted his 15 cents back.—Columbus (Neb.) Times.

A Good Memory.

"Excuse me, sir, but haven't we met before? Your face is strangely familiar."
"Yes, madam, our host introduced us to each other just before dinner."

SHIPS SAVED AT SEA.

WHAT IS MEANT BY "SALVAGE" AND HOW IT IS PAID.

There Is No Law That Signals of Distress at Sea Must Be Heeded—Public Opinion Alone Enforces Responses to Calls For Help.

Salvage on ships saved at sea by others in the majority of cases is paid by the underwriters, although the big steamship companies insure themselves. The insurance companies think that a board of arbitration can more satisfactorily adjust salvage claims than can the courts. The word salvage, as defined by that celebrated admiralty authority, Roscoe, is "the reward which is earned by those who have voluntarily saved or assisted in saving a ship or boat or their apparel or any sort thereof or the lives of persons at sea or a ship, cargo or any part thereof, from peril or a wreck from total loss." The last part of the definition is a trifle puzzling.

In discussing the merits of salvage cases it must be remembered that there is no obligation, written or implied, upon the master or crew of any vessel to heed signals of distress. Public opinion alone enforces the idea that "a call for help at sea must be obeyed." The laws of salvage are merely framed to encourage the saving of life and property on the deep. There is avarice in the mariner as in landmen, and the laws are made to overcome and curb these mercenary ambitions. For that reason a master and his crew cannot expect salvage for saving their own vessel. It is the natural assumption in law, as well as in fact, that they must do everything they can to preserve their charge and under an agreement with the owners keep it from danger whenever possible.

In salvage one of the first laws is that the peril must be actual. The bargain made in time of danger by the master or agent of the imperiled craft with another volunteering aid need not of necessity hold in court, and generally does not. As a rule the bargain is exorbitant and made at a time when the victim would be willing to guarantee the payment of millions for proffered assistance. This point has been decided hundreds of times, the courts taking the stand that the peril made an exorbitant bargain necessary.

As a general thing, the salvage award is equal to about one-third the value in the case of sailing craft and from one-third to one-half in the case of steamers. The owners of the salvaging craft, whose money was wasted by delay, wear and tear, are of course entitled to the bigger piece of the plum. The master of the salvor gets about twice the sum that his mate receives, and the mate is paid something like double the amount of each sailor.

Should the latter have been a member of a lifeboat crew used in running bawlers or in going aboard as a prize crew he and his mates are entitled to an extra compensation. Naval officers cannot claim salvage when the work accomplished is in the direct line of their duty.

In the case of a abandoned vessel there is a peculiar law as applied to ownership. No matter where the derelict be found and towed or assisted in by a prize crew or otherwise the court holds that she is still the property of her original owners, although abandoned by her crew, their agents, and that no effort has been made by them to recover her. It sounds peculiar to the average mariner, but it's the law.

To make a successful salvage claim it is necessary that the property must be actually saved and saved by those claiming to be salvors. In other words, the salvage services must be rendered by persons not bound by contract to render them. If the mariner or other encounters the danger or misfortune or damage which might possibly expose the ship to destruction unless assistance is rendered and does all he can to save the vessel, and his services tend in some degree to save or preserve her, compensation will be awarded him, although the vessel is mainly preserved by other means.

The longest time that any one steamer has been at sea with disabled machinery before reaching port was 77 days. This was the United States corvette Itasca in 1890. She was bound to Samoa from Honolulu, and had only seven days' rations left when port was reached. In 1897 the steamer Indralena was towed into St. Thomas after having been at sea for 47 days. The Glasgow steamer Strathnevis, after drifting 83 days out of the range of steamers, was towed into St. Michael's in January, 1897, by the British steamer Hannah M. Bell. Another Strathnevis, drifted helplessly on the Pacific for two months and over in 1895, and was finally towed into Puget sound. The Dispatch in 1864 was out 61 days with crippled machinery, and four years ago the British cruiser Calypso broke down 2,000 miles from port and sailed in unaided, much to the delight of the dwindling band of naval experts who maintain that every warship ought to be provided with ample sail power.

The owners of those ships that were obliged to drift for weeks, and in several cases for months, would not have found fault with the question of salvage had a helping hand come along—at least there would have been no complaint just then.—New York Mail and Express.

Work of Helpmates.

I was driving through one of the best farming districts in western Ontario a few years ago. I expressed my admiration.

"Yes," said my companion, who knew the country thoroughly, "nearly all the farmers around here have second wives."

"Why?" was my surprised inquiry.
"Oh," he answered, "they killed their first wives making the farm!"—Perth Expositor.

"CROSSED" MONEY ORDERS.

Safeguards Employed in England in Making Small Remittances.

Americans who are buying books in small quantities or are remitting dues to the treasurers of English societies of which they happen to be members occasionally receive a printed or written request to use a "crossed" order when sending money. At first they are likely to be mystified by the phrase. Even if inquiry is made at the postoffice in this country it is quite possible that no satisfactory explanation will be obtainable. The remitting party will ascertain, though, that American postoffices do not issue "crossed" orders.

The term in question refers to two lines drawn with a pen from the top to the bottom of a postal order on its face near the middle and an inch or two apart. That treatment of a money order will prevent payment of it to any one but a banker, and if, as is sometimes done, the name of some particular bank is written in the space between the lines the order will be paid only to that institution. It is not necessary to use any words in addition to the name of the bank. No explicit prohibition is required. The mere crossing of the order is a well understood signal to the British postal authorities, for, while the custom is comparatively unfamiliar to people on this side of the Atlantic, it is common enough in the United Kingdom.

When an American remits money in this manner, he crosses his order himself, but in several foreign countries the postoffice does not give the order to the sender, but transmits it directly to the paying office. The person who remits merely sends notice to the right person to go to the postoffice and apply for the money. Where this usage prevails the postoffice issues a crossed order because the sender cannot cross the order himself. Such is the practice, for instance, in Germany, Belgium, Austria and Italy.—New York Tribune.

NO STOVES IN KOREA.

Instead Flues Are Laid Under the Floors, Which Are Thus Heated.

Stoves are not used to any extent by the native Koreans. The Korean method of heating is excellently adapted to their resources and conditions. In building their houses they lay down a system of flues where the floor is to be. These flues begin at a fireplace, which is usually placed in an outer shed or connecting closed alleyway.

From this fireplace the flues extend in a more or less curved direction, like the ribs of a round fan, to a trench at the rear of the room, which in turn opens into a chimney, which is usually placed some distance from the house. Flat flagstones are then placed carefully over these flues, and the whole is cemented over and finally covered with a thick oil paper, for which the country is noted. This paper keeps smoke from entering the room, and a little straw or brushwood, used in the fireplace for cooking the rice, serves to heat the stone floor and gives an agreeable warmth, which lasts till the time of the next meal.

Two heatings daily tend to give the people a nice warm floor, upon which they sit in the daytime and sleep at night. By leaving their shoes at the door the inmates preserve the paper floor, which from constant polishing takes on a rich brown color.—New York Press.

Maori Women.

The Maori women of Australasia have their rights—flourishing ones. Generally they have little voice or choice in the selection of their first husbands, but they may, and frequently do, change them. A woman may trade her husband without so much as a comment from the public, without the slightest smudge on her good name, and it is nothing to his discredit either. Courtship is always brief and does not often preface marriage. The Maoris, however, love to repeat oriental love tales and sing love songs. Maori widows not infrequently commit suicide on the graves of their husbands and are honored for doing so, as in China. Divorce is simple; it needs no revenue, employs no officers. He turns her out of doors, and both are free to remarry. This is all. Girls are often betrothed irrevocably from infancy.

In Extremis.

Husband—"My darling, when I am gone, how will you ever be able to pay the doctor's bill?"

Wife—"Don't worry about that, dear. If the worst comes to the worst, I will marry the doctor."—Medical Record.

How Mrs. Pinkham HELPED MRS. GOODEN.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 12,735]

"I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female troubles and did nothing for them. Of course I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb and inflammation of ovaries.

"I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of her Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine.

"The first remark that greets me now is 'How much better you look' and you may be sure I never hesitate to tell the cause of my health."—MRS. E. J. GOODEN, ACKLEY, IA.

PILING UP TESTIMONY.

NOTHING BUT PRAISE FROM ALL SOURCES.

Stands High in the Estimation of Those Who Have Tested Its Merits.

There is no doubt whatever as to the merits of Morrow's Kid-ne-oids judging from the good results obtained right here in Indiana. Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are used daily by many of our citizens and they all testify without any hesitancy about the great good they have received by the use of this great kidney preparation. Kid-ne-oids will positively cure kidney backache, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness and all urinary disorders arising from a disordered condition of the kidneys. Another citizen adds his testimony as follows:

Mr. F. W. Stewart, who is one of the firm of the Novelty Advertising Co., of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and whose office is 24 Arcade, says: "For the past five years I have been troubled a great deal with my kidneys; the worst symptoms being continued backache and frequent micturition, discharges being as high as twelve to fifteen times a day and then I always had a painful sensation. Some time ago I tried Morrow's Kid-ne-oids and began to feel better within two days from the time I began to use them. I now sleep well and am free from pain in the back and all other annoying symptoms. It is quite a pleasure for me to tell any one about my experience. Other gentlemen in our office have used them and have been equally benefited."

Kid-ne-oids are for sale at Alpha Cox's drug store.

A JOKER'S FAME.

Some Interesting Reminiscences of the Famous Humorist, Sydney Smith.

Sydney Smith was a political reformer and one of the foremost men of letters of his time, but he is remembered chiefly as a humorist who could enliven a dinner table with his wit. Like other wise men who have a talent for making people laugh, he was jealous of his reputation for good sense.

When he reprinted his essays from the Edinburgh Review, his object, given in his own words, was "to show, if I could, that I had not passed my life merely in making jokes, but that I had made use of whatever little powers of pleasant I might be endowed with to discountenance bad and to encourage liberal and wise principles." In this object he failed. His public services and wisdom have been forgotten. His jokes are remembered.

His account of Dame Partington, who lived upon the beach at Sidmouth and who was seen during a violent storm trundling her mop, squeezing out the sea water and vigorously pushing away the Atlantic ocean, is a household story which every one knows. The circumstances in which it was told and the effect produced by it have passed out of mind.

It was at the end of a long agitation for political reform in England when the house of lords had thrown out the great measure of Lord John Russell, which had been carried through the commons. Sydney Smith, the political person who had been advocating liberal principles and reform measures for many years, told this story at a political meeting in Taunton, at which speeches were made protesting against the action of the lords. It caught the public fancy, and within a week everybody in England was laughing over it. Mrs. Partington's mop battle with the tempest tossed Atlantic portrayed the lords' futile struggle with English public opinion. That funny story was probably more effective than the most eloquent argument in disarming mobs, preventing a breach of the peace and converting hostility to the lords into good natured contempt. "The Atlantic ocean beat Mrs. Partington."

During the 60 years which preceded the Victorian reign Sydney Smith was almost the only prominent English clergyman who was interested in reform movements, and in his writings for the Edinburgh Review he succeeded by his wit in presenting the dullest argument with freshness and force. Wit with him was the vehicle which carried good sense and wisdom. He has been in his grave 60 years, and his reputation is that of a clerical joker.

He expected that a tablet would be erected to his memory in St. Paul's cathedral, London, where as canon he was a favorite preacher at the close of his life. There is no memorial tablet there, nor is there one at either Foston or Combe-Florey, the two parishes where most of his work was done. His jokes have survived not only his writings, but his services as a reformer who loved religious toleration and political liberty as the breath of his life.

What his career proves is that wit is one of the most powerful weapons in the world. Without it he would have exerted very much less influence as a writer or a preacher in politics. With it his name has been handed down as one of the great Englishmen of his time.

George Wright shot and killed Mrs. Joseph Crippen and attempted to murder her husband at Muscatine, Ia. He was the guest of the Crippens at a farewell dinner, they intending to move to Wisconsin. Jealousy is supposed to be the cause of his crime.

Spanish American War Panorama
Is one of the war books which is likely to be in continuous demand. It is a panoramic record of the triumph of Yankee Doodle. The eagle flaps his wings on every page, and "Old Glory" waves around and above every scene. Prominent officers connected with the war are here portrayed, as well as many of the "men behind the guns." Military life is pictured to the eye from recruiting to guard mount and skirmish line. Nor is the ludicrous omitted. The company cook receives the attention due to his importance. The next is shown; cavalry scenes are given; the hospital arrangements are depicted; the heroines of the Red Cross service are displayed; street scenes in Havana, Santiago and elsewhere are unrolled, the new citizens or subjects (which are they?) of Uncle Sam, appear and disappear as the scenes are turned.

In a word, the gazer visits the new localities and sees the tumultuous new life, without the risk or expense of a sea voyage.

The First Anniversary.

It is just a year since the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road inaugurated its celebrated Pioneer Limited passenger train service between Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. This service marked the new era in the railroad world in the line of passenger accommodations. At a cost of a quarter of a million dollars that progressive company furnished the traveling public, in its Pioneer Limited train, comforts and facilities the best ever produced. This train has been described many times in newspapers and magazines, but should be seen and examined to be appreciated. In beauty of finish, richness and elegance of furnishing nothing equal to it has ever been attempted by any other road. The car builders were nearly a year in completing the Pioneer Limited trains (there are two—one leaving Chicago for the west and the other leaving the Twin Cities for the east every evening in the year) and they stand today a monument to the builder's art. No regular passenger train service in America is as well known as the Pioneer Limited. From the standpoint of passenger traffic the past twelve months have been the most successful in the history of the St. Paul road, made so very largely by the Pioneer Limited. The patronage of this service is a striking illustration of the fact that the public appreciates a good thing.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

D. W. Frank, of the C. & O., was a guest here Sunday.

J. H. Shaffling, of the "Q" route, was here from Burlington, Iowa, Sunday.

Engineer Charles Ewing, of the Bedford branch is home to spend a few days with his family.

Engineer William Vail who has an engine on a Missouri road came home Sunday to visit his family.

Five engineers, five conductors and their crews of gravel pit, spent Sunday with their families here.

Thomas Bothwell who has charge of bridges and trestles on the P. D. & E. came home Sunday to visit his family.

Engineer Thomas A. Ackley and wife, of Washington, came up Saturday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. Lucy Cobb.

Assistant roadmaster Van Clark of the Southern Indiana, came over Saturday evening from Bedford accompanied by his wife to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Mitchell.

Samuel Newby Hurt.

Saturday night Samuel Newby met with quite a serious accident at his home just west of the city. A Jersey heifer he was leading jumped onto him and threw him to the ground fracturing the surgical neck of the femur of his right leg. Drs. Casey and Galbraith were called and rendered surgical assistance. Mr. Newby is resting as well as could be expected, yet the accident was a very unfortunate one for him as he is an especially busy man at this season of the year, being a fruit grower and market gardener. He is past sixty years of age.

Grain O Brings Relief.

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise.

DIED.

LAWELL—Thaneus W. Lawell, who had been in a demoted state of mind for more than a year, and was taken to the Central Insane Hospital three weeks ago, died last Saturday. His remains were brought here this forenoon and interred in Riverview cemetery. He was born in Shelbyville, Ky., 63 years ago and had resided here for many years. Two sons, Abe and Henry, and one daughter, Mrs. David Briner of Louisville, survive.

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for sick and nervous headaches. They make pure blood strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by W. F. Peter's, druggist.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. LAW, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

Municipal Ownership.

Municipal ownership is illustrated in the Huntington water works. Consumers pay as much for water (if not more) than would be charged by private ownership, and in addition there is a tax levy upon property of 31 per cent, to pay interest upon and maintain the plant. In addition to this the city secures a tax upon the $200,000 or $300,000 invested. The only compensation for all these taxes, the loss of revenue, etc., is the water used by the city. If municipal ownership is not a humbug, the object lesson we have in Huntington is the exception, not the rule, wherever it obtains.—Huntington Herald

How to Keep Flowers.

Harper's Bazar for the current week gives some excellent ideas on the preservation of cut flowers. Merely putting the stems into water is apparently not sufficient.

"All leaves should be removed from the part of the flower stem that is to lie underneath the water," says the Bazar, "otherwise these sodden leaves decay and make the water offensive. Every day the flowers must be carefully lifted from the water, and the eighth of an inch cut with sharp scissors from the end of the stem. The vase must then be emptied, washed out, and refilled with fresh water."

Fell From a Tree.

Saturday Henry Aesling who resides near Dudleytown, fell from an apple-tree and broke his left leg above the knee. He is eighty-nine years of age which makes his condition the more serious.

A Night of Terror.

"A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. F. Peter's drug store.

Important Notice.

Owing to the fact that small pox exists in twenty odd counties in this state and it is feared by the State Board of Health that an epidemic of this disease is very likely to occur next winter in a virulent form, therefore I urge upon the people of Jackson county to vaccinate and revaccinate with pure glycerinated lymph. Go to your physicians. D J. CUMMINGS, M. D., Sec'y Jackson County Board of Health. Brownstown Ind., July 21, 1899 dawljw22
